Subject: Cease Fire Resolution

Hello,

The time has come for all cities to submit a statement about their stance on Genocide. It seems pretty obvious which side of history we would all want to stand. America has funded the death of 35,000 people, 17,00 of which are children. I know you know the facts but appealing to your humanity, I ask you to look at the people around you and ask yourself if you're proud of the stance you have taken and if you would be proud to share the stance you have taken with the people who surround you.

If my kids asked me how my day was or what I did at work today and my answer had to be yours, denying the declaration for the end of the deaths of children, I couldn't do it. So look at the people you love and tell them the decisions you're making and the humanity and mercy you are denying to recognize and see as needed. Search your conscience.

We are demanding a government stop bombing innocent people and that our Tax dollars stop paying for it. It is simple . Stand for something of character. This is not an admonishment of anyone other than a government committing genocide and ours who is aiding in the process.

Do the right thing,

Dennis Conley
