

SEBASTOPOL WALKS 2024

NOW IN OUR 16TH YEAR

Saturday, May 25, 2024

Music Sebastopol

Saturday, 9:00 am Meet at the downtown plaza

Leader: Scott King

Stop #1, 9-9:25, Gazebo, Sebastopol

Community Drum Circle with Sahar Pinkham (<https://saharsound.weebly.com>)

"The drum circle is an ancient and effective tool to connect people to themselves, to each other and to our surroundings. I invite everyone into the group, from the beginner to well-seasoned drummers. After only minutes in a drum circle, social fears melt, the walls between us fall away and we easily drop into the experience of community. I am available to facilitate a drum circle for your group, and I have drums available for people to play and purchase."

Stop #2 9:30-9:55, Gazebo, Sebastopol

Singing with Jim Corbet (<https://www.peacetown.org> <https://love-choir.org/>)

"Be Kind, Be Happy, Be Grateful, Create Beauty, Build Community, Love your Neighbor, Choose Love Over Fear, Laugh, Sing, Dance and Play, Meditate and/or Pray everyday, Love Yourself as a Divine Being, See others as Divine Beings."

Stop #3 10:15-10:40, Sebtown Strutters Dixieland (carollcurtis@aol.com)

"The Sebtown Strutters is a homegrown Sebastopol band playing Dixieland, Trad Jazz and Swing arrangements. They can be found rehearsing most Saturday mornings in Greg Jilka's open garage at 471 Zimpher Dr. where people often stop to hear their lively music and sometimes even dance!"

Stop #4: 11-11:25, Rialto Theater, (<https://rialtocinemas.com/sebastopol/>)

"Since the birth of the "talkies" sound as been an instrumental part of the filmmakers' tools. Through the presentation of an Academy Award wining cartoon that was most people's first introduction to opera and an Academy Award winning short covering a large swath of the history of motion pictures, Rialto Cinemas takes viewers on a journey with music and sound as essential to storytelling. Rialto Cinemas Director, Ky J. Boyd will be on hand to introduce the shorts and take a few questions."

Stop #5: 11:35-12, The Theater in Music To My Ears (<https://www.mtmearts.com>)

"Nestled in the historic Crawford building, in the heart of downtown Sebastopol. Our boutique theater has a capacity of 60 seats, perfect for intimate performances and community gatherings. It boasts a well-lit, open concept lobby that warmly invites patrons the moment they step in, along with fully equipped sound and light systems, and remarkable acoustics, ensuring a sensational experience for all. Our Theater pulses with diverse, dynamic, and captivating performances. We're a platform for creativity, a hub for local talent, and a beacon for the community. Mission Statement: "Enriching the individual and the community through musical expression & education."
