I have shopped at Grocery Outlet in Santa Rosa, Rohnert Park, and Petaluma for more years than I can remember. I appreciate their offerings and prices.

I do not shop at Safeway or Lucky.

I shop at Fircrest Market, Community Market, and Andy's Produce, and occasionally at Whole Foods...and will continue to do so with a Grocery Outlet in Sebastopol.

With a Grocery Outlet in Sebastopol, my money will be spent here, rather than at the above mentioned locations.

And I might add that the increased traffic concern regarding this issue is small potatoes, compared to the traffic nightmare that returning to two-way streets in downtown will create.

Yours truly,
Karol Kopley
