Subject: The Barlow

An expensive hotel catering only to the wealthy, why is this considered a Sebastopol necessity ?
Most local people I know don't go to the Barlow anyway, as all too overpriced to be popular. As you have seen, and continue to see, businesses failing due to lack of customers who are able to afford an evening out there.

No bailouts and special reductions from our city for this sure to fail hotel, in this already fragile economy.

Thanks,
Sally Ingram
