Dear Mary,

I am expressing my sincere horror at the thought that what we had already made a full throated opposition to is now being discussed again at the city council meeting.

We have already told you what a fiasco running that trail through our property will be. I know you know of the blind curve cars coming down are going to be in the way of the bikepath, let alone if any of the bicyclists try to cut that short.

You have always been our advocate Mary please please make sure my voice is counted in the opposition to this proposed idea. It will be a fiasco if that trail goes through Pauline Pfandler, [REDACTED].

I would love a phone call back.
