

Dear City Council,

Please say no to Caste Crown Castle/T-Mobile's current and future applications.

I truly believe it is not needed and that the existing towers are a health burden not a boon to our downtown. In addition, the full environmental costs are not paid for by the proposed fees.

I hope that in 5 years, a new healthier less harmful technology has come forward to feed our addiction to the internet and our phones.

Portia

--

Portia Sinnott, Executive Director

LITE Initiatives, a non-profit working group specializing in simple, sustainable practices with significant consequences.

Programs: Car-Lite, Community Bikes, Living Green, Zero Waste Action - Sonoma County

[REDACTED]